

Church Planting Coach Expectations

The Church Planting Coach will:

- A. Be a person of prayer.
- B. Demonstrate a holy lifestyle (in action and attitude).
- C. Be approved by the District Superintendent and trained through a district process (initial training is presently through “Becoming a Mentor – DCPI”).
- D. Meet with their church planter and spouse or sponsoring church pastor, whichever is being coached, (in person, by Skype or by phone) monthly. [It is recommended that there is a quarterly face-to-face meeting.]
- E. Be available to the church planter/sponsoring church pastor by email and/or phone at other times.
- F. Document progress via a monthly written report, a copy of which is be forwarded to the church planter, lead coach and district superintendent.

Coaches will receive a monthly honorarium of $100. to be paid by the church planter through the monthly $1000 they are expected to raise.

NOTE: Our District Lead Coach is available to all coaches for consultation and support whenever needed.
